

Song - Night Rise

Composer/Lyricist - Sharangdeo Bhagwat

Alias - Aeroan Gahest Webddagph

[Verse - 1]

The awry veil rises, from underneath the stars..

The globe slowly warps, to face the dark..

Silence starts screaming, the night comes alive..

When the journey of a dreary light, can be tracked from afar..

[Verse - 2]

The dark winged spectacle, does glide among the cloud..

When an angel in a shroud, goes freezing cold..

The true melancholy, spares a tear of regret..

When the downed spectre calls, to be graced for a rise..

[Chorus 1]

When time ends today.. The cacophony, fades away..

Forever tries to change.. But tomorrow dies all over again..

The guardians of past.. Will wither in the storm anew..

For there may come a time.. When the light never shines "bright and new"..

[Verse - 3]

The enchanting trees call us, to be lost in the gloom..

The dense swirling fog, does a smooth manoeuvre..

Darkness contrived, by the summoners of the art..

When all hearts go damp, and are laced with doubt..

[Verse - 4]

The night rise approaches, from horizons of afar..

The hooting in the night, goes up a notch..

Spirits eulogize, the exploits of the nox..

When the serpents of our destiny, will unravel at last..

[Chorus - 2]

When time ends today.. The cacophony, fades away..

Forever tries to change.. But tomorrow dies all over again..

The guardians of past.. Will wither in the storm anew..

For there may come a time.. When the light will shine all "bright and new"..

[Chorus 2 - repeated]

When time ends today.. The cacophony, fades away..

Forever tries to change.. But tomorrow dies all over again..

The guardians of past.. Will wither in the storm anew..

For there may come a time.. When the light will shine all "bright and new"..
